WESLEY CALLED A VAGABOND.

Irish Grand Jury Dealt Hardly with Founder of Methodism.

The Irish Year Book for 1908, just issued at Dublin, contains a bit of history concerning John and Charles Wesley that is not generally known to Methodism. This account notes that John Wesley arrived in Dublin on a Sunday in August, 1747. He had been preceded by a lay preacher earlier in the same year, who had gathered a society numbering almost 300. These Wesley describes as "strong in faith."

Of the Irish he writes, "So civil a people in general I never saw either in Europe or America." Charles Wesley and other preachers followed him and the Methodist song writer heard his own tunes sung and whistled as he went.

Cork city was disturbed in 1748 by the advent of the new preachers. A local ballad singer gains temporary notoriety as a riot leader. Subsequently the grand jury declared: "We find and present Charles Wesley to be a person of ill-fame, a vagabond and a common disturber of his majesty's peace and we pray that he may be transported."

The movement had spread to Ulster in 1750. At Limerick, in 1752, John Wesley presided over the first conference of the preachers. John Wesley died in 1791, having made more than two score cross-channel journeys and having spent six years of his life in Ireland, as well as presiding at all the conferences from 1756 to 1778.

Notwithstanding the steady stream of emigration the Methodist church in Ireland has 250 ministers, 358 Sunday schools, with a total of more than 26,000 pupils and about 65,000 members.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

Judge John R. McFie at Santa Fe issued an order by telegraph for the sheriff at Taos to bring Potter, the man who shot and killed R. L. Pooler, to Santa Fe for safe keeping.

acrobats find it necessary at all times to keep his muscles and joints supple. That is the reason that hundreds of them keep a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment always on hand. A sure cure for rheumatism, cuts, sprains, sore throat, lame back, contracted muscles, corns, bunions and all pains. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Center Block Depot Drug Co.

Tonight at the Duncan, Hall's musical comedy company.

During the spring every one would be benefited by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. It furnishes a needed tonic to the kidneys after the extra strain of winter, and it purifies the blood by stimulating the kidneys, and causing them to eliminate the impurities from it. Foley's Kidney Remedy imparts new life and vigor. Pleasant to take. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.
